

TRAVELLING FROM THE NORTH

Leave A1 at Newark-on-Trent on A617/612

Exit A1 at major roundabout on approach to Newark following signs to Mansfield on the A617. Continue straight on at the next roundabout again following signs to Mansfield on the A617. After about 3 miles you will round a hairpin bend, Kelham village, continue on the main road. Approximately 1 mile after rounding another severe bend, Averham village, take the left fork to Southwell A612.

Continue along the A612, passing through Upton. On nearing Southwell stay on the A612 following signs to Burton Joyce / Nottingham. After 2 miles you will pass through Halloughton, then Thurgarton and Gonalston.

At the approaching roundabout continue straight on again following signs to Burton Joyce and Nottingham, you will pass the Magna Carta Pub on your right before entering the roundabout.

Pass straight through Burton Joyce still on the A612 following signs to Nottingham. After about 4 miles you will pass a school on your right. A further two miles you will pass under a disused railway bridge.

Shortly after rounding a left hand bend you will see oil terminals on your left. Just after passing the oil terminals take the next left turn at the traffic lights (Colwick Industrial Estate South) and turn left at junction onto Private Road Number 3. Armitages is just ahead of you to your right - a big blue building with white lettering.
